3. Biography of General William Donovan

A member of the Intelligence School reports that author Corey Ford is preparing a biography of General Donovan, and that a movie about the General and OSS will follow as soon as the draft of the book is completed. The information is from Mr. Otto C. Doering, Jr., a former close associate of Donovan, who is also the family's lawyer.

4. Success with Video Tapes

Various experiments in the use of video tapes as a training device have been successful in selected fields. Included among these are trial inputs into the Operations [REDACTED] Course, the briefing portion of the Intelligence Techniques Course (for DDI CTs) and most recently the Effective Speaking Course. In the latter course, we plan to add an additional hour because of high value to the students in the playback of video tapes. Video tapes have also been effectively used in the training of instructor personnel.
